Press Release

Date: 13th November, 2026

Subject: Notice Regarding Temporary Disruption of Email Services on 13th November 2026

This is to inform all concerned stakeholders, including Debenture Holders, Issuers, and other associated parties, that due to a global Outlook service outage on Friday, 13th November 2026, our official email domain and associated email services were temporarily unavailable/disrupted.

Owing to the said technical disruption, the receipt and delivery of emails through our official email domain may have been affected during the aforementioned period.

We would also like to clarify that there may be delay in email triggers, automated email notifications, or communication alerts were initiated or sent from our end during the period of the disruption.

We regret the inconvenience caused to our stakeholders due to this unforeseen technical issue and appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

For any urgent communication or clarification regarding the above, stakeholders are requested to contact us through our official communication channels.
